OCTOBER WOMEN'S CLUB

LUNCHEON

Judy Gerarge

The fall Luncheon was held on Thursday, Oct. 12th at noon in the clubhouse. Thirty-tree ladies enjoyed a delicious luncheon of homemade Chichen Tetraxini, fresh tossed salad and pumpkin bars for dessert. The recipe for the Chicken dish is in the October newsletter. I would like to thank our greeter, Marilyn Augheron, Ruth Roof who led us in prayer and Toni Lieberman, who did the 50/50. Other committee members were Laura Connor, Carla Hannay, Jan Smith and Diane Steare. They did a great job of serving the food. Also, thank you to all who helped set up and clean up.

After the business meeting, participants enjoyed a "Belly Dance Program" put on by "Biminis' in Motion", consisting of Jackie, Christine and Mary. We experienced beautiful dances, colorful costumes, silk veils and shimmering coin skirts. 12 or more of us were given coin skirts to wear while we learned some of the dance steps. One more thing to check off the bucket list!

I hope all will agree that we had a great day of fun, food and friendship.

YOU: MASTER OF CEREMONIES

by Steve Rollison*

What's the best thing about Saturday Morning Coffee?

First, a side note to our new residents. You are invited (and encouraged!) to join a large gaggle of your friends and neighbors Saturdays from 9:00 o'clock until around 10:15. It's mostly social, partly communication, and partly jokes and/or entertainment. Many or most folks choose to queue up for a cup of coffee (fifty cents) or a donut (for a buck). We traditionally call that part "run for the buns," but some of us are pushing for a change to "dash for the donuts."

So, what is the best thing about Saturday Morning Coffee? Well, I guess everybody that comes to Coffee has a fun time, but what's best is going to vary from person to person.

I can tell you what is not a fun thing about Saturday Morning Coffee: twisting arms to get volunteers to be MC and, perhaps to a lesser extent, make the coffee. Maybe I'll do a column sometime about making coffee, but that's not the purpose of this column.

And no, the purpose of this column is not to twist your arm to volunteer to be MC either! ☺

Look, I know that most people reading this would rather have a root canal than stand up on the stage and be MC, and nobody is asking you to go through that pain! But if you don't equate "MC" and "root canal," I'm just asking that you think about how the following tips and ideas could maybe help.

1. Use the MC worksheet. Just fill in the blanks. 65% of the program never changes.

2. Cheat. Write down or type everything you want to say. In case you didn't notice, that's what the rest of us do!

3. Use www.HowStuffWorks.com. You'll find great ideas for a presentation "theme." Use an interesting single-subject theme – like "How Toilet Paper Works." Or select a list-based theme like "7 Outrageous Credit Cards if You Have Great Credit."

4. Find jokes with Google. Search for "toilet paper jokes." Couldn't be easier.

Consider forming a duo. It worked for Abbott & Costello! Ask one of the "regular" MCs to buddy up with you. I'd be delighted to do that, and I'll bet the others would be, too.

Book Recommendation:

Here Vultures Fly

by Rudy Rodrigues

This is the narration of the personal experiences of the author, Rudy Rodrigues, during his ten years of service with the United Nations in Afghanistan, where he was engaged in emergency relief and later rehabilitation programs in close collaboration with the Communist government, the mujahideen, the Taliban, and the post-Taliban government.

The author was responsible for opening the first UNICEF office in Kyrgyzstan soon after the collapse of the Soviet Union in a unique environment and culture. During this time, he was working with a government unfamiliar with the United Nations and its goals and objectives. In addition, the Kyrgyz population was traumatized by this sudden period of transition and uncertainty. A major focus of the author's work was gaining the confidence of the government in Uzbekistan and to ensure the building of meaningful partnership programs for women and children.

This book also covers the adventures, romance, and thrill of being born and raised in Kenya; serving as an officer in the army; the challenges of working in Papua New Guinea; and having the glorious opportunity of working in the UN in different parts of the world with a multiethnic/multicultural community.

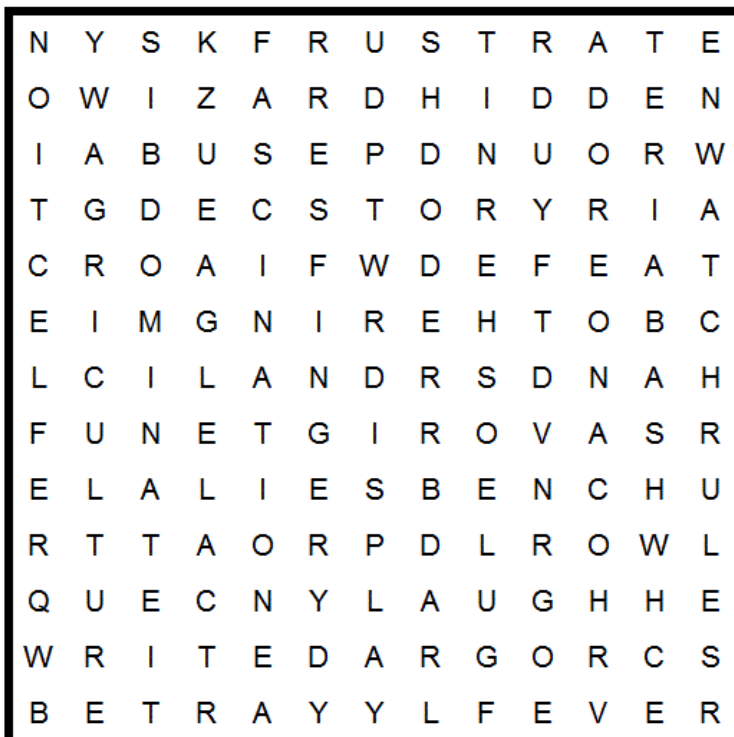

About the Author

Rudy Rodrigues was born and raised in Kenya. He graduated from the Royal Military Academy Sandhurst and the British Army Staff College. He was commissioned and served as an officer in the Kenya Army in both command and staff appointments. Resigning after sixteen years of active service, he then immigrated to Canada with his wife and three children. Later, Rodrigues was appointed country director of a Canadian NGO in the Sudan, with a mandate to provide leadership, strategic planning and the delivery of UN (WFP) emergency relief supplies to the more than three million starving people displaced by the famine of 1985. He did so using a fleet of 350 cargo vehicles and a staff of over 3,000 people. This trucking operation was later taken over by the UN, and Rodrigues served as its Director. In 2006 Rodrigues ended his career, and moved from Afghanistan, where he was last working with the United Nations. He retired to Winter Park, Florida where he lives today, and enjoys traveling, writing and spending time with his family, children and grandchildren.
