FROM THE PRESIDENT

Steve Rollison – 941-375-8110

I have to admit that when I have heard about people falling for scams, my thoughts have often been less than entirely sympathetic. To be blunt, I've wanted to say to the victims "You've been warned about these scams time and time again, yet you ignored the warnings and turned over your credit card number or rushed out to buy a gift card as some obvious crook demanded! How could you be so stupid?!!"

However, there was an article in the AARP magazine recently that enabled me to adopt a more charitable attitude toward those who fall for smooth-talking telephone con artists.

The article pointed out how the con artists prevent their victims from even thinking about what is happening while the con is under way. The scammers know that if a target takes time to evaluate the story they are fed then the game is all over.

So how does the con artist prevent a victim from entering an "evaluative" frame of mind?

The answer is to immediately get the victim into an emotional state and keep them there.

The most common emotion they utilize is fear. Fear is a very powerful emotion, and with a well-planned and well-executed story, fear is easy to instill and maintain.

WE ARE A SMALL COMMUNITY AND
HAVE MANY WALKERS
PLEASE ADHERE TO
THE SPEED LIMIT OF 15
MILES AN HOUR.
SPEED LIMIT 15

You are overwhelmed with fear if you believe your grandchild is in danger; if you believe the IRS or police are coming after you because of a mistake you made; if you believe your life's savings may disappear because your bank account has been compromised; if you believe you may lose all your photos, contact information, and critical documents because your computer has been hacked.

The AARP article emphasized that even many highly intelligent people – including powerful decision makers such as federal judges – have been scammed when trapped by fear.

But scammers sometimes utilize other strong emotions, such as greed, to ensnare an individual and keep them from thinking through the situation that is painted for them. “You have won that sweepstakes you entered six months ago! Congratulations! What’s the first thing you’re going to do with that $700,000?” Spoken by a well-rehearsed individual with a friendly voice, those words might get your heart palpitating in a hurry.

So now that you know the scammer’s primary tool-in-trade, how can you protect yourself?

Start by impressing on your subconscious mind right now what to do if you ever receive a phone call and find yourself terrified or elated with news about an unexpected situation.

When you get that phone call you need to stop immediately, take two slow deep breaths, and say to yourself, “This news has thrown me into a highly emotional state. I know that’s a tool that scammers use. Maybe this news is true, and maybe it isn’t. I need to listen to the rest of this story and figure out how I can determine whether it is true or not, and what’s the best course of action to take.”

Here are a few additional specific steps you can take.

- Ask “In case we get disconnected, what’s your phone number so I can call you back?” Afterward compare that number to what’s in your caller id history. Do they match?
- Ask “I’m sorry... who is this?” After you get the name and write it down, follow up with “No, I meant what company (organization) are you with?”
- Type into a Google search the words “phone number” plus the number(s) you got from the first step. Often Google will tell you if a number is for a cell phone, which is what scammers usually use. (Try it with your own phone number and see.) Do the Google results match the rest of the story you’ve gotten?
- Next search Google for the company/organization name you were given. Do not rely on the phone number they gave you; an accomplice could pretend to be an operator or secretary. If you got a different number from Google, call it and ask for the person who contacted you.

If you follow these steps you will automatically defeat a con artist’s main advantage: you will shift at least a little bit from emotional mode to thinking mode.

You can strengthen your defense by relating the story to a trusted friend (who will be less emotionally involved) before sending money or taking any other demanded action.

If you had a birthday and/or anniversary this month and we missed it, or listed it with the wrong month or day, please send a correction to stevelim@wnet.com. That's also the e-mail address to use to send your info if you are a new resident or have a phone book change.

LAST CHANCE

Steve Rollison – 941-375-8110

Look closely through this entire issue of The Bay Laker, and you might notice that something essential is missing.

There isn't any "news" in this newsletter!

That's partly because of the coronavirus lockdown. There just isn't as much stuff going on in the park as there usually is.

But it's also partly because when there is news, we want to tell you about it right away, and not wait for a whole month until the next issue of the newsletter is published.

So if you want to stay on top of things, and you receive e-mail, you need to be subscribed to the Bay Lake Event Alerts. They're short blast e-mails that get sent out whenever there's anything newsworthy to report – generally, that's a few times each month, although it's been less lately.

Subscribing (or unsubscribing) couldn't be easier. Just send me a very brief e-mail, including your name, and I'll take care of all the details.

Here's the address:

WELCOME NEW RESIDENTS

May - None

June (to date)

Michael and Amy Hutchinson, 135 Orange Blossom St.

Welcome to Bay Lake Estates! We look forward to meeting all the new residents when the clubhouse opens again. In the meantime, please sign up to receive email EventAlerts to keep up to date throughout the month. The president of our HOA, Steve Rollison, volunteers his time to send out these alerts several times a month. To sign up, send Steve an email requesting your name be added to his list. EventAlerts@SteveRollison.com

And if you are on Facebook, be sure to join our private Facebook page, "Bay Lake Estates Friends". This private page currently has 129 members and is a good opportunity to see a face behind a name.

Note: All residents may want to jot the new residents' information down in the back of your 2020 Resident Directory. We won't be getting new directories for quite some time.

~COCONUT CREAM PIE DELUXE~

by Judy Nieman

Submitted by Rosemary Baumgartner

Cook time: 15 Min Prep time: 30 Min Serves: 12 – 14

Ingredients

- 1 c walnuts, chopped fine
- 1 c all-purpose flour
- 1 stick butter, softened
- 8 oz cream cheese, softened
- 1 c powdered sugar
- 16 oz Cool Whip lite, thawed
- 3 3/4 c half and half
- 2 pkg coconut cream pie filling/pudding (the kind you cook), 3.4 oz each
- 1 c shredded coconut

Directions

Preheat oven to 350 degrees.

Mix 1 stick softened butter with 1 cup flour and 1 cup minced walnuts. Mix thoroughly.

Spray lightly a 13 x 9 glass pan. Press mixture evenly into bottom of the pan. Bake for 13-15 minutes depending on your oven. You just want to see slight brown on the edges. Completely cool.

Put 1 cup shredded coconut in a small skillet and toast lightly. Set aside to cool.

Beat 1 package softened cream cheese with 1 cup powdered sugar. Mix by hand then whip it for a few minutes with an electric mixer until fluffy. Fold in 1/3 of the whipped topping into the mixture and set aside.

After crust is cool spread Cool Whip/cream cheese mixture onto crust using smooth strokes.

In heavy bottom pot put in both packages of coconut cream pudding and milk; whisk. Slowly bring to a boil being careful not to burn the bottom. Set aside to cool.

Spread cooled pudding onto crust mixture. Spread the rest of the Cool Whip on top. Sprinkle with toasted coconut.

Chill for at least two hours or overnight. Keeps for days.

~BEST TASTING LASAGNA~

(by Michael M. Kloian)

Ingredients makes a 9" x 13"

Olive Oil

1 lb. Sweet Italian Sausage (ground, not links)

1 lb. ground beef (ground round, chuck or 80/20 beef – no need to drain the fat when cooked)

2 boxes of oven ready Lasagna noodles (for a 9x13 casserole dish)

4-5 cloves of garlic, chopped

1 medium sized sweet onion - chopped

1- 28 oz can of pure crushed tomatoes, (not puree tomatoes)

2- 6 oz cans of tomato paste

1- 12 oz can or 2 - 6.5oz cans of tomato sauce

½ cup of water

2 tablespoons of white sugar

1 ½ teaspoons of dried basil leaves

½ teaspoon fennel seeds

1 teaspoon Italian seasoning

1 ½ teaspoons of salt

½ teaspoon black pepper

1- 14oz or 16oz container of Ricotta cheese

¾ cup of grated parmesan cheese

2 ½ to 3 - 8oz bags of shredded mozzarella cheese (I used 2.5 bags)

Directions

In a large cooking pot, place some olive oil in the bottom on medium low heat, add the onion and garlic and cook until soft.

Add the sausage and beef and cook until done, chopping up the meat with as you go so it isn't chunky when cooked.

When meat is fully cooked, add the crushed tomatoes, tomato paste, tomato sauce and water (pour the water into the can of crushed tomatoes and swirl the can before pouring water into the mix).

Season with sugar, basil, fennel seeds, Italian seasoning, salt, pepper.

Simmer for about 1.5 hours with a lid on the pot, stirring occasionally. If runny, remove lid half way.

Assemble in a 9x13 baking pan:

Spread about 1 - 1½ cups of meat sauce (enough to cover bottom)

Arrange the first layer of noodles over the sauce.

Spread about 1/3 of the Ricotta cheese over the first layer of noodles using a large spoon.

Sprinkle Mozzarella cheese over the Ricotta cheese.

Spoon about 1½ cups of the meat sauce over the Mozzarella cheese.

Sprinkle about ¼ cup of Parmesan cheese over the meat sauce.

Repeat the above with 2 additional layers, or 3 if there enough meat sauce.

When there is no more Ricotta cheese for the top layer, spread the meat sauce over the top layer of noodles and then sprinkle Mozzarella cheese over the meat.

Cover with foil and make sure the foil does not touch the cheese or you may need to spray the inside of the foil with PAM or other type product.

Pre-heat the oven to 350 degrees. Bake for 30 minutes. Remove the foil and bake 20 minutes.

Let the Lasagna cool down about 15- 20 minutes slicing. Leftovers, if any, may be frozen.

This recipe is a BIG BATCH that must be assembled in a 9" x 13" oven proof dish/tray at least 2½ - 3 inches deep. Recipe may be cut in half if using a smaller casserole dish.

~COUSIN DIANA'S WHITE BEAN CHILI~

Submitted by Cyndi Bennett

Ingredients

- 3 cans Bush's Great Northern Beans
- 2 12.5-oz. cans Swanson White Chunk Chicken
- 1 16-oz. jar Pace Chunky Salsa (medium or spicy)
- 1 qt Half & Half
- 8 c shredded mozzarella cheese

Directions

Combine the 1st 4 ingredients in a large crockpot and cook on Low for 1 hour.

Then, stir in 5 c of the mozzarella cheese. Continue to cook on Low, stirring every 15 min., for about 3 hours.

Use the remaining cheese to garnish the bowls of soup when you serve it. Goes well with tortilla chips or cornbread.

I always halve this recipe as it makes a lot. Can be frozen.

NEW POOL HOURS

Donna Pfeiffer – 941-586-2812

The pool is now open from 7am to 7pm. The seats and railings will continue to be cleaned periodically throughout the day before 4pm. For extra precaution, you may want to bring your own disinfectant to wipe down your chair since someone else may have used it before you. We are still at a maximum limit of 7 people in the pool area at a time. Enjoy!

COME TOURING WITH US

Marian Brooks – 519-766-6107

At the ladies' luncheon, on March 12, we discussed touring next fall and winter by coach. It was decided that I should head it up. So... Where would we like to go? I am fairly new to the state so I could use some help. Where should we go? Where shall we have lunch? Do you know any good restaurants? What are your interests? Dunedin, Anne Marie Island, St Petersburg, Clearwater, Arcadia, Punta Gorda, Fort Myers??? There is an island that we can only walk to. I had a young fellow ask me about a fishing charter, a real boat where they bring in a catch. Maybe two or three people would like to do this - not 20 or 30 people.

Please give this some thought. If there is enough interest and we can BE on a bus, I think it would be fun. I won't be around til mid November, God willing (I say that a lot lately), so you have lots of time. In the meantime, Keep Cool. We are enjoying a beautiful summer in Ontario. The weather has been lovely. Only one snow storm May 7...

Ahead of the Curve

During the quarantine, we have all learned a new way to live, our new normal. Now connecting with family and friends takes place remotely on video chats or zoom meetings.

Before social distancing, when we could get together without regulations, a couple of hearing aid manufacturers were already leveraging these remote meeting technologies.

ReSound and Phonak each have a line of hearing aids that can be programmed remotely. How this works is really quite interesting.

Let's take a ReSound Quattro as an example. You were fitted with these hearing aids and they were set to your preferences. Then your situation changed. Imagine you are living in a new location with new sounds. Or, think about if you had to take steroids, high dosage antibiotics, prescription pain medication or chemotherapy for a long time. Any of these situations can affect your hearing and alter how well you hear.

Usually, a slow shift in conversations is a first indicator that your hearing has declined. Whether you are misunderstanding words, you ask people to repeat themselves or you feel like everyone is yelling at you, these are all indicators that your hearing aids are not performing to your current loss.

You will call us, and we will connect to your hearing aids through your smartphone. Then we will review the data that is in your hearing aids. This data tells us how you are using your hearing aids, which programs you use the most, how often you increase the volume, and battery usage. We will ask you questions about frustrations and concerns to help zero in on the most frustrating moments. Real-time program adjustments are made so you can listen to your spouse in your home to ensure the new adjustments address your frustrations.

ReSound and Phonak have had these smartphone remote programmable hearing aids available for over six months. These companies were ahead of the curve. With social distancing we have noticed a rush to market from the other main manufacturers. So now, we can offer remote programming for certain hearing aid models from Oticon and Widex.

Call us if you want to demo these new remote programmable hearing aids, at no charge, 941-244-9300.

NOTES FROM THE EDITOR

Donna Pfeiffer – 941-586-2812

Editor@BayLakeEstates.org

The Bay Laker continues to need your articles of interest. Please consider such things as, gardening tips, home craft ideas, tips on simple home repairs, funny stories, jokes... we all need to laugh, recipes, fun ideas for keeping in contact with our grandchildren, games to play together remotely, etc. Personally, I would love to hear some suggestions of games that can be played remotely with my 5 year old granddaughter.

Thank you to all that submitted recipes this month. I plan on trying some of them myself.

New copies of The Bay Laker Newsletter are left inside the clubhouse in a box by the door during the summer months. You may pick up your copy anytime after the first of each month.

Newsletter Deadline: 12th of the previous month

All articles and information must be received by the 12th of each month to be included in the newsletter for the following month. You are encouraged to submit articles and photos of upcoming or past BLE events (whenever we are able to resume events) or articles, recipes, etc., you deem note worthy for our community. Please EMAIL all newsletter submissions to: Editor@BayLakeEstates.org before the deadline. Thank you.

Attention Community Residents

A Note From Your Newsletter Publisher:

We are Community Media – the publisher of your community newsletter.

We hope that you all are staying safe during the coronavirus pandemic. This is affecting many aspects of daily life for almost every American. Our office staff is following the CDC guidelines of staying home when not feeling well, seeking medical help when necessary, and washing hands constantly.

We encourage you to follow the same guidelines located at coronavirus.gov.

The phrase “We’re all in this together” is more meaningful now more than ever.

What are we doing?

We are still providing a FREE newsletter to your community.

This newsletter is FREE to your community because we partner with local and regional businesses to advertise their products and services in this newsletter.

We are temporarily reducing publishing expenses so we can continue to publish your newsletter long term. For your community newsletter this may include:

- Making sure the page count of each newsletter is in line with current advertiser support
- Verifying the number of newsletter copies needed so we don't print too many newsletters

What can you, as a community resident, do?

Utilize the businesses in your newsletter.

- Whether you are searching for home services, health care providers, insurance, and almost anything else...CHECK YOUR NEWSLETTER FIRST!
- These businesses choose to support your community newsletter so please let them know you appreciate them.

Do you have any suggestions for advertisers? If so we'd love to reach out to them.

Be patient and kind with each other, especially now. Reach out to friends and neighbors who may need help.
