TIME TO SAY GOOD BUY!

Figuratively speaking, that is. It’s been my pleasure to serve on the HOA Board but it is time for the new Board members to take charge. Many thanks to all who extended a hand to help organize and run the meetings and activities the Board supports. A big “shout out” to Steve Rollison who took over for me while I was cruising the Caribbean.

I urge all residents to consider supporting the HOA. The more members we have, the more effective the Board can be in advocating for every Bay Lake resident. Some of the services the HOA provides to homeowners throughout the year are:

Negotiates rental agreement

Meets with management on a regular basis

Submits recommendations for annual Capital Expenditures (Cap X) for community improvements.

Supports the various social activities offered to residents.

Membership allows you to vote on issues that come before the Board and a discount on tickets to things like the Valentine Dance, Ice Cream Social, etc. and only costs $10.

Hope to see you at the April

WE ARE A SMALL COMMUNITY AND HAVE MANY WALKERS
PLEASE ADHERE TO
THE SPEED LIMIT OF 15 MILES AN HOUR.

HANDICAP PARKING

I was recently sent an email from someone in the park who, in the past, has noticed there are folks parking by the pool or by the clubhouse in the Handicap Parking spot with no Plate or Tag allowing them to park there. If you are reading this, and you happen to be one of several people, or perhaps your guest may not realize that is a serious no-no, who parks in a Handicap Parking spot, PLEASE STOP. One phone call to the Sheriff could land you a nifty fine for illegal parking, or one call to the office and you may see the taillights of your vehicle being towed away.

DOG POOP

Another person stopped me one day, while walking her dog, and she was telling me how many times she has seen piles of doggy do-do in various locations throughout our community. While Sarasota County does have an ordinance in place addressing dog poop, our park also has specific rules pertaining to the collection of one's dog waste. It is clearly a health hazard, and unwarranted, to leave your pet's waste behind. They do make plastic, glove-type bags, where you can slide the bag over your hand, collect the dog's waste, remove the bag by inverting it, tie the bag closed and move on with walking your pet.

DRIVING TOO FAST

This pet-peeve, no pun intended, comes from me. While we do have speed limit signs posted throughout the park it appears we have many residents who ignore this simple-to-follow rule. There is one such vehicle, a white SUV, that appears to be driving between 25-30 mph on my street, daily. Although I don't own a radar gun in order to verify their speed, I do see this SUV whiz past my home simply because I work in my home office, my Lanai, in the front of my home.

I also feel ELS should install a much larger sign (14" x 24") at the entrance for all to see as they enter our park, especially delivery vehicles, i.e. Please Observe Our Speed Limit of 15mph While In The park.

Driving fast poses a threat to the safety and well-being of our residents who walk, walk their dog, ride a scooter, etc. Whenever I pass someone who is walking their little pooch I slow down as a matter of courtesy just in case the little pooch decides to dart out into the street. Wouldn't want to squish the little guy, or gal.

YOUR MOST VALUABLE ACCOUNT

You probably have an online account that many crooks would value even more than your bank account. Really!

Hacking into your e-mail account might actually provide them easy access to all your other online accounts – including your bank and/or investment accounts. But you already knew that – right?

You did know that already if you've been an Event Alerts subscriber for a while. That's because an Alert went out not that long ago, describing how a Bay Lake resident narrowly escaped being victimized by a crafty crook pretending to be an Xfinity employee. Yes, he was trying to con the resident out of his e-mail password!

What exactly are the Event Alerts, you ask?

They are short e-mail “blasts” sent out whenever there are news items, announcements, events or activities you'd want to know about. The Bay Laker Newsletter is great, but like any printed information, it's pretty much out of date by the time you pick it up.

Alerts are the best way to stay on top of things at Bay Lake.

Our 2023 Valentine’s dinner and dance went off without a hitch, thanks to the efforts of Barb Hickey and her entire volunteer staff serving us a great roast beef dinner with all the trimmings.

I Love My Hearing Aids

Being a small business owner it is important for us to know how clients find us. Whenever a new client comes into our office we always ask, how did you find us?

During the shutdown due to covid, the majority answered “online” since there weren’t any gatherings.

Now that we are able to get together we are getting more referrals from existing clients. They tend to say, ‘my neighbor said I wasn’t hearing well and should see you.’

My favorite this year came from Betty. When asked, “How did you find us?” she said, “I overheard my friend, Shirley, say she loves her hearing aids”. That is a direct quote.

Betty explained that other people complain about their hearing aids, especially when trying to understand conversations in groups. Yet Shirley was in a line dancing class and while talking to another woman said, “I love my hearing aids.”

Hearing someone say they love their hearing aids, Betty knew she had to check it out. Betty walked over to Shirley and asked, “who helps with your hearing aids?”

When I heard the story I was thrilled to know how well we had fitted our client Shirley. Knowing that Shirley is able to be social and hear with confidence is our intention.

Our goal is to help clients hear well in groups. To know that we helped Shirley hear well in a dance class and so well that she shared how much she loves her hearing aids is such a great testimony for us.

If you struggle to hear conversations clearly in crowds, call for a free demo of hearing aids, and possibly ones that you might even love.

MIRACLES DO HAPPEN

contributor Michael M Kloian

For this issue of the Bay Laker, I'm combining The Humane Thing To Do with Miracles Do Happen. There is much detail to this true story.

I titled this article, The Injustice – Justice System.

A little background... In 2014 I stumbled across a news article on MSN concerning the release of 2 men, after being incarcerated for over 31 years who sat on death-row for the rape and heinous murder of 11 year-old Sabrina Buie, neither man committed. They are Henry McCollum and his half brother Leon Brown (yes, you can google their name). After performing an extensive research regarding the details of this murder I wrote a 3 page summary for a Documentary, titled, "Shades of Black and White" I planned to present to both men as an example of my writing along with a cash deposit of $25,000 for the exclusive rights to their story. Since I had a contact at SHOWTIME I felt this story would make a great documentary. Years later, as it turns out, this "wrongful conviction" story did appear on a HLN special, along with other wrongful conviction stories, during a special segment aired only on HLN.

So, I took it upon myself and drove to Red Springs, North Carolina from Savannah, GA on a Saturday morning, the week the two men were released from prison, with hopes of locating the two men. When I arrived in Red Springs, I stopped at several churches, then a few restaurants and soon thereafter I did locate an address for the brothers. By the time

I found them it was too late. Showtime beat me to it by just an hour or so and had locked up their exclusive story with a $50,000 cashiers check.

THE STORY... In 1983 both men, African American's, 19 and 14 years of age at the time of their arrest, were accused and subsequently convicted by a very famous D.A. in Robeson County, for the rape and heinous crime of murdering eleven year old Sabrina Buie. They were both sentenced to death. I am not going to divulge details of the murder. Too gory.

Recently discovered DNA evidence brought to the attention of those in authority by the Innocence Inquiry Commission, proved to be enough to free the two men after serving nearly 31 years for a crime they have always shared with anyone who would listen that they did not commit.

The evidence box, that reportedly did not exist, or was told to investigators was certainly lost, was discovered by the Inquiry Commission at the Red Springs Police Department. The box contained Sabrina Buie's fingernails, hair samplings, a cigarette butt and three beer cans all found at the Buie crime scene in 1983. The DNA and fingerprints belonged to a man named Roscoe Artis. Artis, staying with his sister in Red Springs, sports a lengthy history of crime. He was no doubt dodging a 1980 warrant for his arrest for the rape and murder of a Gastonia County, NC, woman. Artis lived 100 yards from the very soybean field where Buie's body was discovered.

Just one month before McCollum and Brown went to trial, Robeson County district attorney Joe Freeman Britt convicted Artis for a crime similar to that of Buie. Artis admitted to having murdered 19 year old Joann Brockman. He also led police to where her clothes and other evidence were secretly hidden. Artis received the death penalty. It was an easy victory for Britt.

The coincidence of facts in this case were such that when Artis went to prison he befriended McCollum and Brown. He was also heard telling others that McCollum and Brown did not kill Sabrina Buie. Artis knew the truth. Now we also know the truth. Former district attorney of Robeson County, Joe Freeman Britt, a Native American, dubbed 'The Deadliest D.A.' in a live interview on a 60 Minutes TV segment brags about having convicted well over 40 defendants to death row. In 1976 his record of convictions was entered into the Guinness's Book of Records and was updated in 1988 with having 47 death row convictions.

An egotistical Britt acquired two additional feathers in his cap (no pun intended) when he tried and convicted McCollum and Brown to death row, based solely upon a very shaky signed confession by two very scared young boys with an IQ bordering retardation (IQ tested in the 60's). Other than the detailed signed confessions, Britt offered no hard evidence during the trial. The convictions were based solely on two signed confessions.

The confessions, we later learn, was hand written by an SBI agent (State Bureau of Investigation) who was present at the Buie crime scene, the autopsy and the interrogation of McCollum and Brown.

A second murder took place in Red Springs within one month of the Buie murder in 1983. Nineteen year old Joann Brockman was found raped and murdered in like fashion as Sabrina Buie, yet district attorney Britt failed to associate the two murders as being committed by the same person. The fact that he refused to acknowledge or investigate the possibility of both murders being committed by the same person strongly suggests his motive was only to rack up two more death row inmates. After all, he had a reputation and a conviction record to uphold. Several days prior to the McCollum trial the Red Springs police did suggest to the SBI that the beer cans found at the Buie crime scene be sent out for fingerprints. Nothing came of that request.

It wasn't until 2010 (27 years later) when a cellmate of Leon Brown suggested he send a letter to the Innocence Inquiry Commission and formerly request that DNA be tested from the evidence gathered at the crime scene.

On Wednesday, September 3, 2014, Superior Court Judge Douglas Sasser ruled to set the two men free. The judge ruled that DNA testing of a cigarette butt found at the scene pointed to another man.

The "miracle" in this story is two-fold: Despite the underhanded crookedness of a D.A. bent on convicting innocent people just to rack up more points, after 31 long years of torture and suffering in prison, two innocent men were finally released thanks to the evidence box that was preserved by the Red Springs Police Dept and the Innocence Inquiry Commission for their efforts in freeing the brothers. If you have a 'miracle' story to share, please send your story to editor@baylakeestates.org. Put NEWSLETTER in the subject line.

WHERE TO DINE – WHAT TO ORDER

contributor Michael M Kloian

This short article is for lovers of beef, pork and seafood.

My guests, Scott & Kelley, from Michigan, who hope to live in Bay Lake Estates one day, love to go out to eat as often as possible when visiting. And, why not, we do have an abundance of eateries close to us. They chose PRIME STEAKHOUSE in Venice for our Friday evening meal. After looking at the menu on-line I could NOT resist trying PRIME myself.

Scott, a staunch lover of a good rib-eye steak, discovered all of PRIME'S steaks are dry-aged for 28 days. Although he elected NOT to order the dry rubbed rib-eye he did order the regular rib-eye steak and he claimed it was the very best rib-eye, ever - perfectly cooked medium and juicy. I consider Scott to be a connoisseur of fine food, since he finds numerous, very interesting, restaurants to dine at in Charleston, Savannah, New Orleans, Sarasota, etc.

Kelley, on the other hand, a serious pork-chop lover, ordered this awesome looking, double boned, pork chop (see photo), char cooked to perfection. The pork-chop was a beautiful presentation of the kind of food items PRIME serves.

I was anxious to try the pan seared Red Snapper with citrus crust and orange beurre blanc (whatever that is), along with a side of roasted garlic and parmesan mashed potatoes. I was NOT disappointed. Simply yummy. And, for an appetizer I ordered their French Onion Soup which, being a former Chef, I have always loved a tasty bowl of French Onion Soup. Absolutely delicious is the only way I can describe this soup.

Overall, the three of us gave PRIME two, very big, thumbs up.

The cool thing about dining at PRIME is a house salad is included with your meal, which is mixed and served table-side (and they leave the bowl in case you want more salad), along with one side dish of your choosing. Nothing is ala-carte, including a basket of pop-overs served with butter early on.

Service (our server was James) and the food was fantastic. Try it yourself, but don't tell them Michael sent you simply because they don't know me, yet.

MY FAVORITE FILM OR TV SHOW

contributor Michael M Kloian

The Girls of Sola aired on 60 minutes on 02/26/2023. I encourage you to watch it.

Afghanistan's fall to the Taliban in August of 2021 has unquestionably plunged that nation once again into a deep crisis. Millions are facing famine, and the economy is in shambles. Those suffering the most are Afghan women and girls. The Taliban has closed girls' schools beyond 6th grade and, just recently, barred women from universities. That means that girls are banned from anything beyond a grade-school education.

They're now learning at a school called SOLA, the Afghan word for peace. It was started by a young Afghan woman named Shabana Basij-Rasikh, who knows firsthand the power of an education. And though they had to flee Afghanistan in a harrowing escape, the girls of SOLA are back in the classroom, half a world away.
