SCAM ALERT

Grandparent and Family Scams

Here's how they work:

You get a call: "Grandma, I need money for bail." Or maybe an email from someone claiming to be your brother or a friend who says they're in trouble. They need money for a medical bill. Or some other kind of emergency. The caller says it's urgent — and tells you to keep it a secret.

But is the caller who you think it is? Scammers are good at pretending to be someone they're not. They can be convincing: sometimes using information from social networking sites, or hacking into your loved one's email account, all to make it seem more real. And they'll pressure you to send money before you have time to think.

Here's what to do:

1. Stop. Check it out. Look up your family member's phone number yourself and call another family member to check out the story.
2. Pass this information on to a friend. You may not have gotten one of these calls, but chances are, you know someone who will get one — if they haven't already.

xcuse my French, eh!

As most of you know, I am Canadian. I come from a bilingual region in Ontario. My first language is, in fact, French.

I was fortunate enough to live in a bilingual area where French and English were the two languages spoken by almost everyone. I started learning English as a second language at school when I was 6. My children spoke both languages before they started school at 4 years old. My first job was in English only, then I moved to government positions where being bilingual was required. While I was with the Federal Government of Canada, I had employees in each Province of Canada, some who only spoke French while others only spoke English, based on their locations. For me, switching from one language to another is second nature.

I consider myself fluent in English, but I'm certain most of you have noticed a little bit of an accent, EH? And possibly some vocabulary, grammar or pronunciation isn't quite right. Or sometimes the words get stuck and come out all garbled. Yes, it happens...A lot! Why is that? Well, there is real science behind that. It seems the brain of bilinguals works differently than monolinguals. How is that possible?

“Scientists say when a bilingual person hears words in one language, the other language also becomes activated in their brain. The brains of bilinguals adapt to this constant coactivation of two languages, therefore making them different to the brains of monolinguals. Bilinguals are also capable of developing vocabulary in two languages without becoming confused. When bilinguals mix words from different languages in one sentence – which is known as code-switching – it is not because they cannot tell which word belongs to which language. The fact is, they understand completely, despite the fact both languages are mixed in one sentence.”

~ Medical News Today

Wow, it's like I'm running two digital dictionaries in my brain at once. No wonder I'm tired at the end of the day. The region I come from does mix French and English in one sentence (code-switching), thus creating our own dialect. Yep, that's right, French speaking people from Quebec or Europe can't always understand my 'French'. I was taught standard academic French in school, and I still write using the 'proper' French, but I speak a different French. Confused? Me too. If that isn't enough, I remember for many, many years all my 'thoughts' were in French and had to be translated in my head before I could respond in English. It's astounding to think there wasn't a time delay during conversations, but the fact remains I would think in French and respond in English. I don't do that anymore, it's too exhausting and being retired I don't have so many important things to say.

All this to say, if I don't always make sense or you don't understand me, please excuse my French. Just ask me to clarify or repeat. I will not get offended, and I can laugh at myself. Now you understand why my brain gets tired and sometimes gives out on me.

To all of you who speak more than one language, stay strong! Apparently our bilingual coactivating brains will be able to sustain better cognitive health and function in older age.

Have a good month. Stay safe and healthy! G

Struggle to Hear?

Blair Post, HAS, BC-HIS, ACA

Board Certified Hearing Instrument Sciences
American Conference of Audioprosthology

While presenting at a Chamber Expo, a woman stopped by our booth and asked if her dad should get his hearing tested.

I asked, "When does he struggle to hear well?"

She said, "He doesn't struggle. He hears well but I just thought since he is 86 years- old, he should have it checked."

I said, "It doesn't seem like he has a loss. I would encourage you to have his hearing checked if he strains to hear you or your family. If he struggles to hear then have his hearing checked."

If you wonder if you or a loved one should have your hearing checked, here are four questions to ask:

- * Does your spouse complain that the TV is too loud?
- * Does your spouse complain that you don't listen?
- * Do you strain to hear in crowds?
- * Do you strain to hear your grandkids or younger waitresses?

If you answer yes to TWO of these questions, you should get your hearing tested.

Does answering yes mean you have a hearing loss? No, these are just indicators. They suggest you should get a hearing test so know your baseline.

After the hearing test when I review your results with you, I will give you tips to hear better during these situations. There is no fee to have the test.

If your loss could benefit from hearing aids, and you want to, I will let you try a set of hearing aids for one week. There is no contract and no obligation. You can try the aids for one week in your everyday life.

If you wonder if you have a hearing loss, call for your hearing test, 941-244-9300.

INDEPENDENCE DAY MEANS MORE THAN A DAY OF FREEDOM!

Every American knows the importance of July 4th since it represents so many things, starting with America freeing herself from British tyranny the day the Declaration of Independence was signed by all our forefathers (see Signatures at the bottom).

Last year, following our Memorial Day lunch I sang AMERICA by Neil Diamond. The lyrics are such that "everywhere around the world, they're coming to America". These foreigners came by boat and plane to escape whatever or to find refuge in America because our reputation leaked out throughout the world "Go to America" and start a new left where freedom rings. They flooded our country bringing with them new hopes and dreams (along with diverse cultures & recipes) to settle in the 'land of the free'.

We Americans should be proud of this achievement.

Then the thought occurred to me, "what were they thinking of while travelling on the boats or planes while enroute to the land of the free"? Were they scared. Were they apprehensive? Could it be the uncertainty of arriving in a strange new land?

That song continues, "they huddle close, hang on to a dream'. It was the dream, I figured.

The reason the photo of soldiers 'Person of the Year' seen in this article is because right now, today, over 200,000 men and women serving in our military abroad are standing by, ready-willing-and able to lay down their life to preserve our freedom, 'so we can sleep in peace at night when we lay down our head' (American Soldier and Courtesy of the Red, White & Blue as sung by Toby Keith.)

Another great song, 'God Bless the USA' sung by Lee Greenwood clearly typifies the heart and soul of Americans coast-to-coast.

No doubt somewhere in your family tree (like mine) some close, or distant, relative came a very long way by boat or by plane to taste the freedom that America has to offer.

This July 4th and throughout the month of July let us give thanks for the privilege of living in a 'great land' called America.

MORE HELP NEEDED!

contributor Marian Brooks

We always need help. While some folks have signed up to chair certain future events, several events will need a designated chairperson to run the show, plan the menu, and find volunteers, etc. The 2025 Events sheet will be on display at the clubhouse in 2025 for those who wish to volunteer to chair an event.

Volunteers are always needed to chair and work each event. Some categories of volunteers are: Chairperson(s) to manage and plan the event, Kitchen Helpers (food preparation), Food Servers, Sink Duty (cleaning pots, pans, utensils), Set-up & Tear Down. To volunteer, please call the chairperson in charge of the event if you're inclined to assist. Many hands makes for an easier job.

NEEDED – one or two people to chair the Sunshine Committee.

NEWSLETTERS

Home delivery of our monthly newsletter has ended May 1st. You may pick up a copy at the clubhouse on or after the 1st of every month. Stay informed – read the newsletter. Folks always try to attend an event at the last minute simply because they didn't know about it. If you don't read this monthly newsletter then this is on you.

You can always access past newsletters on-line at www.BayLakeEstates.org.

WHAT'S GOIN' ON IN BAY LAKE ESTATES? STAY CURRENT

contributor Steve Rollison 941-375-8110

YOUR MOST VALUABLE ACCOUNT

You probably have an online account that many crooks would value even more than your bank account. Really!

Hacking into your e-mail account might actually provide them easy access to all your other online accounts – including your bank and/or investment accounts. But you already knew that – right?

You did know that already if you've been an Event Alerts subscriber for a while. That's because an Alert went out not that long ago, describing how a Bay Lake resident narrowly escaped being victimized by a crafty crook pretending to be an Xfinity employee. Yes, he was trying to con the resident out of his e-mail password!

What exactly are the Event Alerts, you ask?

They are short e-mail “blasts” sent out whenever there are news items, announcements, events or activities you'd want to know about. The Bay Laker Newsletter is great, but like any printed information, it's pretty much out of date by the time you pick it up.

Alerts are the best way to stay on top of things at Bay Lake.

If you're not already a subscriber, becoming one couldn't be any easier. Just send Steve a request at: EventAlerts@SteveRollison.com

A brief “Please subscribe me,” along with your name, is all you need to send.

HOA MEMBERSHIPS

HOA memberships are now on sale for 2025. All homeowners may purchase a membership for $10.00 for the entire year. This is a fiscal thing, January – December.

Please note, when voting for the election of directors only one member of the HOA per household are allowed to vote, per #723 of the Florida Statue. Annual renters and occupants may purchase an Associate membership for $10.00 a year as well. All members may vote on HOA issues and expenditures and attend HOA meetings. HOA memberships are important to receive discounts or to join special events, like the Welcome Back Breakfast, Ice Cream Social, Valentine’s Day dinner and dance, Halloween Party and more.

Memberships will be sold at Saturday morning coffee and at association meetings, or by calling Steve Medich at 708-921-3367.

THE HUMANE THING TO DO

contributor Michael M Kloian 912-547-2416

Man jumps into action to save baby in stroller headed toward busy road...

The baby’s great aunt fell (seen on the left) while attending to the baby and the wind pushed the stroller toward the busy street ahead. Then out of nowhere, a bystander, a California man, came running and stopped the stroller seconds before the stroller ended up on the street (as seen in the photo) avoiding perhaps a tragic accident.

MIRACLES DO HAPPEN

contributor Michael M Kloian (912-547-2416)

MIRACLES FROM HEAVEN (a film) - WHO IS ANNABEL BEAM?

Not everyone has a movie and a book based on their real-life saga, but 13-year-old Annabel Beam knows what that feels like.

In December 2011, after suffering from a chronic intestinal disorder for four years, she fell headfirst 30 feet inside a hollow tree in their yard, somehow emerging without serious injuries. And somehow, miraculously, free of her stomach disorder.

Annabel says she visited heaven while trapped inside the tree. Asking to stay with Jesus – there was no stomach pain in heaven – she says he told her, “No, Annabel, I have plans for you on Earth that you can’t fulfill in heaven.”

Finding herself back in the tree, she waited for rescuers to send down a harness to pull her up. But she wasn’t alone, she says; a guardian angel was there to keep her company.

“In the tree, the angel winked at me,” says Annabel, as if they were saying, ‘You’re gonna be all right now,’ ” Annabel tells PEOPLE.

The firefighters who rescued her kept saying how eerily calm and peaceful Annabel was. If anyone was entombed in the base of a tree for five hours, they’d be hysterical. But she never was.

After Annabel told her parents about going to heaven – and after they realized her stomach was suddenly well – “God totally laid it on my heart to write this book,” Christy, Annabel’s mother says. “I literally said, No, God, that’s so cute. I don’t write, but thank you anyway.” But after more prayer and encouragement by others, I bought a laptop and just started. It was so cathartic.

The book wasn’t even on the shelves yet when a movie agreement was made. Starring Jennifer Garner as Christy.

The Beams know there will be people who don’t believe the movie or the book. Annabel’s stomach condition, called pseudo-obstruction mobility disorder and antral hypo motility disorder, is associated with the nervous system, so some have theorized that it cleared up when she hit her head in the tree.

Abbie says people have approached her and exclaimed, “That’s so amazing! The fall healed her!”

“I’m like, ‘No, what happened after the fall healed her,’ ” she adds.

As for a medical explanation, “the doctors don’t know,” Christy says. “They just say she’s asymptomatic and on zero medications.”

Kevin Beam, Annabel’s father, says there is one thing he knows for sure: “The girl who fell in the tree is not the girl who came out of that tree.”

To those who doubt her story, Annabel has a few words:

“What I want to say is this,” she says. “Believe in it if you want to. We put this out there so you could have a stronger faith and probably a better life. But we’re not trying to force it down your throat. So you can believe as you want, but we put this out there to help you, not hurt you.”

Christy, who is working on a children’s version of her book, has more free time these days, now that Annabel’s recurring hospital stays are a thing of the past.

“Sometimes, it’s nice to just sit back and laugh,” she says of her family’s life now. “It’s nice to absorb it and just be grateful.”

PRIME SERIOUS STEAK AND DEEP LAGOON

Summer only specials!

Now is the time to take advantage of the summer season special deals at PRIME SERIOUS STEAK, which is very close to BLE. For example, Prime Serious Steak offers a 2 for $40 menu and a 2 for $50 menu which you will surely find something to suit your palate from either menu.

If you are looking for that raw oyster fix no need to look any further. Deep Lagoon serves some of the best raw oysters I've ever had. Order their sampler plate sporting 3 varieties including Prince Edward Island (the best). I also ordered the Oysters Rockefeller and Lobster Bisque soup which was top notch. Oyster night, for sure!
